

OBITUARIES

1965

Clarence C. Koob

Clarence C. Koob, 75 of Route 3, Hastings, formerly of Vermontville died at 4:45 pm Monday at Pennock Hospital.

He was born in Oceana County February 26, 1890, son of George and Maggie (Michels) Koob. He moved at a young age to Covert and went to school, then to Lake Odessa at age 21 where he worked for a farmer. Later he moved to Vermontville and married Winnefred Satterlee of Vermontville on December 13, 1915.

He farmed until thirteen years ago when he retired and moved to E. State Rd.

Mr. Koob had been in ill health for seven years.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. John (Florence) Morgan of Woodland, Mrs. Franklin (Gladys) Byers of Battle Creek, nine grandchildren, thirteen great-grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Calvin (Irene) Livingston.

The services will be on Thursday May 20, from the Leonard Osgood Funeral Home in Hastings. Lester DeGroot officiating and burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery in Vermontville.

AN ACT to reorganize, consolidate and prescribe the duties of candidates for public officers; to regulate primaries; to prevent the abuse of the elective franchise; and to amend certain sections of the Code of Vermont.

Section 1. Section 1. to 168.992 of the Code of Vermont, 1933 to read: 168.373 To amend the election law, Section 373, to be available to the board of elections and to perform such duties as may be appointed by the board. Approved: _____

AN ACT to reorganize and prescribe the duties of public officers; to provide for primaries and to amend certain sections of the Code of Vermont.

Section 1. Section 1. of the Code of Vermont, 1933 to read: 168.667 Boards of county commissioners, the forms for the use of the pres-

Word was received Monday of the death of Mrs Alma Swinton, Marquette, 87, a former Vermontville resident. Mrs Swinton was the daughter of Mrs Sarah Williams, who lived for many years where the Kenyon Peabody's now reside.

A further article about Mrs Swinton will be printed in next week's paper.

NOTICE:

Rev. Cornelius T. Wheaton, pastor of the Vermontville Bismark churches in 1938 and 1939, passed away in his sleep at his home in Winnett, Montana February 28, 1965. Surviving are the two sons, William and Kenneth both of Los Angeles, California.

OBITUARY

Ernest LaFleur, 74, a farmer from rural Vermontville for fifty years, died Thursday evening in Hayes Green Beach Hospital in Charlotte.

He had been taken ill while working in his barn that evening. He was born at White Oaks a son of Charles F. and Evelyn (Abbott) Lafleur. On August 28, 1918 he married Mary Shipard in Vermontville. She survives along with a son Phillip at home, a daughter Mrs Virginia Furlong of Nashville and six grandchildren. One son, Staff Sergeant Paul LaFleur preceded him in death.

AREA D

Frank T. Bair

LAKE ODESSA—Services for Frank T. Bair, 81, Lake Odessa, will be Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Mapes-Fisher Funeral Home, Sunfield, with burial in Sunfield Cemetery. Mr. Bair died Thursday in an Ionia nursing home. He is survived by his wife, Carrie; a daughter, Mrs. Herma Hayden, White Cloud, a grandson and a great-grandson.

Litta M. Taylor

OBITUARY

Clarence Koob, 75, passed away at Pennock Hospital Monday P.M. Funeral services will be Thursday, 1:30, at the Leonard Osgood Funeral Home.

Robert L. Mead

Robert L. Mead, 51, a former Vermontville resident, died Tuesday at a Battle Creek hospital. He was employed for the last four years by a Nashville construction company. Surviving are his wife, Roberta; two sons, Frederick and Jesse, both of Hastings; a daughter, Mrs. Jack Dawson of Nashville; mother, Mrs. Edith Mead of Meosta; three sisters, a brother, and 13 grandchildren. Funeral services were held Friday at the Vogt Funeral Home, Vermontville. Burial was in the Woodlawn cemetery, Vermontville.