

183

George L. Geisel

LAKE ODESSA — George L. Geisel, 74, a lifelong Lake Odessa area resident, died Thursday night at a Hastings hospital after a short illness.

He was a Rawleigh Co. salesman for 40 years. He was a member of the Congregational Church board for many years. Surviving are his wife, Bessie, a son, Kenneth of Ionia; three grandchildren and a great-grandchild; a brother, John of Belding; two sisters, Mrs. Reva McDaniels and Mrs. Christine Lillard of Grand Ledge.

The body is at the Pickens Memorial Chapel, Lake Odessa, where services will be at 2 p.m. today. Burial will be in the Reside Cemetery.

Effie Mae Fender

WOODLAND — Mrs. Effie Mae Fender, 87, a former resident here, died Wednesday afternoon at her home in Battle Creek.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Gerald Salisbury, Mrs. Cleo Sawdy, and Mrs. Samuel Parker, all of Battle Creek; three sons, Wilbur of Kalamazoo, and Arlo and Merlin, both of Battle Creek; 13 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Friday in the Pickens Funeral Chapel at Lake Odessa. Burial will follow at Woodland Memorial Cemetery.

Wayne Kidder

Funeral services for Wayne G. Kidder were held on Wednesday, November 30, from the Peterson Funeral Home in Waukegan, Illinois. Masonic services were held on Tuesday, November 29.

Mr. Kidder, 68, of 1024 Woodlawn Ave., Waukegan, Illinois died on Saturday, November 26.

He was born in Vermontville, Michigan, was orphaned at 14, and made his home with his brother, the late Arthur Kidder, graduating from Nashville High School in 1917. He had been a resident of Waukegan for the past 23 years.

Mr. Kidder was a member of the 1st Presbyterian Church, Anchor and Ark Masonic Lodge 1027, Chicago Dental Society, Homer Daringer American Legion Post 281, Smith Spaid VFW Post, 1293; also a World War 1 Veteran of Barracks 917, and a member of Voiture 604 of the 40 and 8. He was a practicing dentist for 42 years.

Surviving are his widow, Helen E (Copeland) whose father built the blacksmith shop which is now Mrs. Holman's Art Gallery. Also surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Jean Krenpotic, North Chicago, Mrs. Elizabeth Dinger of Waukegan, a son, Wayne, Jr., of Waukegan, a brother, Louis of Miami, Florida; a sister, Miss Ethelyn K. of Charlotte, Mich. and 15 grandchildren.

He was buried in Northshore Garden of Memories in Waukegan.

Edward Cheal

SUNFIELD — Edward Cheal, a lifelong resident of Sunfield, died today at a convalescent home in Charlotte. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by the Mapes-Fisher Funeral Home.

hvkEL..

used only with respect to classified positions established

Office rentals; unexpended balance, reversed by Sec. 13. No appropriation in any item for office except the Mason building, shall be used for any purpose made from any office rental appropriation to any other item of appropriation. The to general fund. On June 30, 1958, to the credit under the provisions of this ment fund. hereby appropriated such appropriations from specific fund: employees' retirement fund: vice commission and the savings or accruals of the various structure of matching funds. Section 4 of this act all moneys received in regard to the use of any department or office which are

HAWKINS, MARVIN A. 206 Ravenwood

Age 48, died Wednesday at the residence. Born Dec. 28, 1917, in Lansing. Mr. Hawkins had been a life-long resident of Lansing; a veteran of World War II, former vice president of Kish Industries; a charter member of the Commanders Club. Surviving are: the wife, Margaret; 1 daughter, Janice Hawkins, Grand Rapids; 1 son, Ross Hawkins, Lansing; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hawkins, Lansing; 2 sisters, Mrs. Robert Eddy, Mrs. Marvin Montgomery, both of Lansing; 1 brother, Howard Hawkins, Lansing. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 1 p.m. at the Gorsline-Runciman Funeral Home with Rev. C. Oscar Leonardson of Grace Lutheran Church officiating. Interment in Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens.

al of such transac

Frank Seitz

VERMONTVILLE — Frank Seitz, 92, retired farmer of R. 1 Vermontville, was dead on arrival Thursday at the Hayes-Green Beach Hospital in Charlotte. Mr. Seitz was stricken while walking home after a visit with his son at a neighboring home. Death was apparently due to a heart attack.

Surviving are his son, Keith, of R. 1 Vermontville; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Irvin, of Vermontville; and Mrs. John Kennedy, of Lansing; a grandchild and a great-grandchild.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Vogt Funeral Home. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

led ch
applied
Michigan
state shall herein
shall pro

made un
fr 20
ile
ti
y f ne
r i classif ositio

shall issio

1 fu
buil
sha