

DR. L. D. KELSEY

Retired Woodland Farmer Dies in Florida Thursday

Daniel B. Green, 84, retired farmer of Woodland, died early Thursday, Oct. 8, in Florida.

He and his wife, Florence, arrived at Kissimmee last Friday to spend the Winter when Mr. Green was taken ill and taken to the hospital.

He was born March 7, 1875, in New York State, the son of John and Cynthia Coolbaugh Green. He had been a resident of the Woodland area for 75 years.

He lived on his farm south of Woodland for many years until retiring and moving to Woodland. He was a dealer for the Maytag washer for many years.

Mr. Green was a member of the Woodland United Brethren church. Surviving are his wife; one son, Ward, of Woodland; two granddaughters; three great grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Nettie Wellman, of Jackson.

The body arrived at the Pickens Chapel in Lake Odessa early Sunday and funeral services were held Monday at 2 p. m. with interment in the Woodland Memorial cemetery.

Rev. Isaac Osgood and Rev. Vernon Beardsley officiated.

Town Will Pay Honor To Doctor

(Special to The State Journal)

VERMONTVILLE, June 6 — The community of Vermontville is to honor Dr. L. Donald Kelsey, Saturday from 8 to 10 p. m. with an open house in the auditorium of the high school.

Dr. Kelsey came to Vermontville 24 years ago from Lansing. He not only has served Vermontville area as a physician, but as a community benefactor as well. He retired as village president this spring after serving for nine years. During his administration a water system was installed, and a widespread street improvement project was, and is still, being carried out. He has been active in promoting a new athletic field which is under construction, been active in the Lions club, the Red Cross, merchants association, the Masonic orders, Republican clubs in local, county and state capacities, and has served as chief of staff of the McLaughlin Osteopathic hospital in Lansing.

Dr. and Mrs. Kelsey and their family are leaving for a vacation in the west next Wednesday.

Instead of the gifts which might be brought to the open house, the committee has suggested that a silver collection be given instead, and the one gift presented.

Area Deaths

Mrs. Mamie Shance Fetterman
CHARLOTTE, Oct. 31 — Mrs. Mamie Shance Fetterman, 86, of Pottersville, died Friday at a Charlotte hospital. She is survived by the husband, William; a son, Otho Chance of Charlotte; a stepson, Edwin Fetterman of Hastings; two grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Pottersville Methodist church and burial will be in Pottersville cemetery. The body is at the Burkhead-Cheney chapel, Charlotte.

19 59 2160
Fred E. Jackson
SUNFIELD, Aug. 14 — Fred E. Jackson, 71, of Sunfield, died Thursday at a Lansing hospital. He was a life resident of Sunfield. Surviving are the widow, Gladys; a son, Robert Jackson of Grand Rapids; two grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Elsie Barker of Lansing. Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. at the Mapes funeral home, Sunfield, and burial will be in Sunfield cemetery.
Mrs. Mabel Geer

3

2