Daniel B. Green
 DANIEL B. GREEN—Daniel B. Green, a retired Woodland farmer, died early Thursday morning in a Kissimmee, Fla., hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Green spent their summers in Woodland and their winters in Florida. Mr. Green was hospitalized after arriving there on March 7, 1875, in Michigan, the son of Daniel and Cynthia (Coolbaugh) Green. The family came here in 1875. Mr. Green was only 9 years old when he lived on a farm near Woodland until his retirement several years ago. He was a member of the United Brethren church of Woodland. Survivors include his wife, Florence; two sons, Fred and William; two daughters, three grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Wellman of Jackson. Burial will be returned to the home.

Fred W. Frey
 Fred W. Frey, 69, a Kalama township farmer, died Tuesday, Sept. 22, 1959 in a convalescent home in Charlotte. He had been ill for two years. Mr. Frey was born Jan. 4, 1890, in Fostoria, Ohio, son of Frank and Fannie (Heistand) Frey, but had lived all but five years of his life in the Charlotte area. He and the former Millie Millett were married Oct. 17, 1925, in Lansing. In addition to his wife, Mr. Frey is survived by a son, Jack of Battle Creek; a daughter, Miss Lou Ella Frey of Bellevue; a brother, George of Delta, Ohio; a sister, Mrs. Clemetta Link of Bellevue, and two grandchildren.
