

IN MEMORY

Joseph Faust

BORN

May 5, 1870

DATE OF DEATH

February 7, 1960

SERVICES FROM

The First Congregational Church
February 10, 1960 2:00 p.m.

CLERGYMAN OFFICIATING
Rev. F. Willard Kime

FINAL RESTING PLACE
Woodlawn Cemetery

CASKET BEARERS

Hugh Parker M. B. McClelland
Dana Dean Wm. Barningham
Ben Slout Lawrence Frith

Joseph Faust

VERMONTVILLE — Joseph Faust, 89, of 410 S. Main st., died at his home Sunday morning after a lingering illness. He was born in Gibsonburg, Ohio. On May 16, 1906 he was married to Calista Bennett at Charlotte. He had lived in this vicinity since the age of eight years. He was a member of the Vermontville Congregational Church and was a life member of Lodge No. 232, F&AM. He served 11 years on the village council. Surviving are his wife; two sons, Leslie of Vermontville and John of Grand Ledge; five daughters, Mrs. John (Wilma) Mattson of Anaheim, Calif., Mrs. Ivan (Hortense) Holmes of Lansing, Mrs. Dorr (Hazel) Rawson of Hastings, Mrs. Lindley (Doris) Borton of Royal Oak and Mrs. Loren (Vivian) Pierce of Flint; 12 grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren, and a brother, Allen Faust of Vermontville.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD SATURDAY FOR DELL LANDES

Funeral services were held January 23, at Estes-Leadly funeral home for Dell Landes 44, a former Vermontville resident. Mr Landes died at his home in Lansing Tuesday night as the result of gun shot wounds.

Mr. Landes was born January 7, 1916 in Grass Range, Montana, the son of Mr and Mrs Alva Landes.

He is survived by his wife, Adalene, three daughters, Yvonne, Marilyn, and Dawn; one son, Roger; his father, Alva Landes of Vermontville; two brothers, Delvin of Hastings, and Harland of Vermontville, two sisters, Mrs Howard Swan of Lansing and Mrs Wm Foster of Vermontville.

Harry J. Youngs

KALAMO—Harry J. Youngs, 55, a carpenter, died Saturday noon at his residence in Kalamo Township after an 18-month illness. He was born in Marshall, the son of Menzo and Josephine Bachman Youngs, and had resided in Kalamo Township for the past 16 years. He was married Aug. 21, 1931, to Ardath Crabtree, who survives. Also surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Charles (Elsie) Hine of Kalamo Township; a son, Leo, of Kalamo Township; two step-sons, Judson D. Crabtree of 15190 Godde rd., Battle Creek; and Charles Crabtree of Nashville; four stepdaughters, Mrs. Grover (Eleanor) Waldron and Mrs. Frank (Reva) Welker, both of Elkhart, Ind., Mrs. Dan (Hazel) Bourdo of Kalamo Township and Mrs. Dan (June) Deters of Fremont; 43 grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Grace Jacox of 8359 B drive S., Battle Creek, and a half-brother, Nathan James, also of Battle Creek.

26