

TRIBUTE

to H. A. DeLong

For twenty years our farm was a retreat for Brother DeLong. In later years, his health not good, his wife gone, he would come out to help with the work, visit with the neighbors, or walk in the fields for relaxation.

Through the years of our friendship we watched as he broke under the labors of the ministry, mourning that he had not done more. A man among men, a Christian gentleman, bursting with energy in his prime, he was born to be a leader. But he gave over and above his time and means, for those in and out of the church always felt they could turn to him in time of trouble. He was not only an excellent pastor, he was a shrewd business man, fine farmer and livestock man, and master carpenter.

Not long before his passing, he spent a day at the farm. Before I returned to the field, he asked to pray with us, and my wife and I knelt at his feet. We arose as those blessed by a patriarch of old.

The church has lost a wise man from its councils, his family a Christian father, I a friend.

PRAYER
O gentlest Heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on the soul of Thy departed servant. Be not severe in Thy judgment, but let some drops of Thy Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames and do Thou, O merciful Savior send Thy angels to conduct her to a place of refreshment, light and peace. Amen. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine on her. Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy upon her.
