

Publisher's Wife Dies

Brief Illness Is Fatal to Mrs. Richard Foltz of Lake Odessa

Mrs. Catherine E. Foltz, 52, wife of Richard Foltz, publisher of the Lake Odessa Wave at Lake Odessa, died at St. Lawrence hospital Sunday evening at 7:15 o'clock after a short illness.

Mrs. Foltz was taken ill June 15 and removed to the hospital from her Lake Odessa home. Her condition was thought to be improving, but she took a turn for the worse Sunday and died at 7:15 p. m.

Besides her husband, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Foltz, 1125 W. Michigan ave., Mrs. Foltz is survived by a son, Richard, Jr. of Mendon, and a daughter, Ann Marie of Lake Odessa. A sister, Miss Mary Gore, 1212 W. Michigan ave., also survives.

ENTERED NURSING

Mrs. Foltz, the former Catherine E. Gore, was born in Belding, April 23, 1908. She attended the Belding schools until she passed the fourth grade when the family moved to Lansing where she entered St. Mary school. She graduated from St. Mary high school in June of 1926 and then entered nurse's training at St. Lawrence hospital for three years. Later she was employed as a nurse assistant to the late Dr. Harry Weinburg for three years. She and Mr. Foltz were married in the Roman Catholic church in Mendon on July 16, 1931. Mr. Foltz, a former Lansing resident, had gone to Mendon where he had purchased a newspaper. After their marriage Mrs. Foltz continued to work here until January of 1932 when she and Mr. Foltz moved to Mendon where they resided until 1959 when they moved to Lake Odessa.

Cause of death had not been definitely determined Monday.

The body was removed to the Palmer-Bush funeral home where funeral services will be announced later.

In Memory of

Rhoda Ross

Born
April 14, 1881
Sunfield, Michigan

Entered into rest
May 14, 1960
Charlotte, Michigan

Services
2:00 P. M. Tuesday
May 17, 1960
Burkhead-Cheney Chapel
Charlotte, Michigan

Officiating
The Rev. Vincent C. Myers
The Rev. Earl L. Habecker

Pallbearers
James Gordon Floyd Mason
Harry Hopkins William Cain
Fred Rathbun Gerald Fletcher

Interment
Maple Hill Cemetery
Charlotte, Michigan

APRIL, 1943

Area Deaths

Paul Itsell
HOWELL, Nov. 15 - Paul Itsell, 73, of rural Howell, died in a convalescent home here Thursday. He was a life resident of Livingston county. He has no immediate survivors. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. at the MacDonald funeral home. Howell, and burial will be in Lakeside cemetery, rural Howell.

Earnest M. Peck
GRAND LEDGE, Nov. 11 - Earnest M. Peck, 80, formerly of Grand Ledge, died Wednesday at a Marquette, Mich., hospital. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Zola Barnum of Crystal. Services will be held Saturday at 1:30 p. m. at the Peters funeral home, Grand Ledge, and burial will be in Sunfield cemetery.

Mrs. Fame Benjamin Carr
FOWLERVILLE, Nov. 11 - Mrs. Fame Benjamin Carr, 87, a lifelong resident of Livingston county, died 11, and buried by the FOWLERVILLE

APRIL, 1945

ve to the increase of the 15 mill limitation," was submitted 5, and rejected by the following vote: For, 115,463; against, ve to authorizing the state to control rivers, etc., for certain to the people April 2, 1945, and adopted by the following 1st, 138,558.

NOVEMBER, 1946

mg state control and participation to certain internal im- scribed to the people November 5, 1946, and adopted by the 44; against, 428,430.

50

o exceed the 15 mill le November 5, 1940, 59. r state employment," the following vote:

al amendment peti- ded by the following slative and referen- adopted by the fol-

" was submitted to vote: For, 432,164;

he people November 1st, 468,506.

es of homestead lands," e: For, 215,957; against,

he following vote: For,

ter by city, etc." was e following vote: For,

tate offices," was sub- following vote: For,

legislature," was sub- following vote: For,

er," was submitted to vote: For, 638,876;