

John W. Desgranges Passed Away Tuesday

John Wesley Desgranges, 84, retired farmer, passed away Tuesday afternoon at his home after a long illness. A native of Henry county, Ohio, he was the son of Peter and Mary (Dirr) Desgranges and married Ruth Rowlander in Charlotte, October 8, 1913. They moved to a farm west of town on M-50 from Ohio in 1927 and after he retired in 1950 moved to their home in the village.

Surviving are his wife Ruth: four daughters, Mrs. Forrest (Laura) Haney and Mrs. Roger (Alona) Allen of Lake Odessa, Mrs. John (Opel) Booher and Mrs. (Arloa) Lee of Woodland; seven sons, Clarence of Lansing, LaVon of Eaton Rapids, Willard Paul, Elwood, Aubrey and Glenn of Lake Odessa; 26 grandchildren; two great grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Carrie Foltz of Continental, Ohio.

Mr. Desgranges reposes at the Pickens funeral chapel where funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. with burial in Lakeside cemetery. Rev. Henry Hulbert and Rev. Isaac Osgood will officiate.

Herbert Hyde 68, Buried Wednesday

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p. m. for Herbert Hyde, 68, farmer, route one, Woodland, at the Mapes funeral home at Sunfield. He passed away Sunday at Pennock hospital, after a short illness.

Mr. Hyde was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hyde and was a lifelong resident of the Sunfield and local areas.

Survivors include his wife, former Nina Swick and a daughter, Helen, at home.

Eaton Farmer Takes Own Life

(Special to The State Journal)
GRAND LEDGE, June 29—Funeral services will be held Saturday, 2 p. m., at Peters funeral home for Emer C. Kenyon, 75, prominent farmer in Eaton county for many years, who died Wednesday.

He had been in failing health and death was due to suicide, according to a report by Leslie R. Peters, Eaton county coroner.

Surviving are a brother, Charles Kenyon, and a sister, Cora Kenyon, both of rural Grand Ledge and a sister, Mrs. Blanche McBride, of Los Angeles, California. Burial will be in Union cemetery.

Emer C. Kenyon

Funeral services were held Saturday, July 1, at Peters' Funeral home in Grand Ledge for Emer C. Kenyon. He was born in Howard County, Nebraska, Aug. 9, 1885, the son of George and Ella Kenyon.

When he was nine, the family moved to the farm home in Oneida township where he spent the remainder of his life.

He is survived by one brother and two sisters, Charles and Cora Kenyon, with whom he lived, and a sister, Mrs. Blanche McBride of California.

Relatives of this area have received a telegram telling of the death of Mrs. Henry Hener of Webster, N. Y. Deceased was the former Carolyn (Cad) Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson who owned the Kalamo hotel and operated the Kalamo apple drier. She had been ill for 3 months and is survived by her husband and two daughters.

LIVINGSTON COUNTY

- The Brighton
- Fowlerville R
- Livingston C
- Pinckney Dis
- The Newberk
- The Republic
- Enterprise
- Armada Time
- South Macon
- Monitor-Lead
- Mt. Clemens
- North Macon
- New Haven E
- The Richmond
- Observer Pres
- The Utica Sey
- Macomb Cou
- South Macomb

MANISTEE COUNTY

- Manistee Co. Pioneer Press
- Manistee News-Advocate
- The Mining Journal
- Negaunee Iron Herald

D 86
Ha
R
San Sabin
Burial
cemet
Mr. followi
mar, C of the gin

T. and F.
Semi-Weekly
Daily
Ind.
Ind.
Rear Lake
Manistee
Van Dyke
Geoffrey Howes
Luke Keddle
John Batdorf

Thursday