

Mrs. Mae Hartsch
CHARLOTTE, June 27—Mrs. Mae Hartsch, 88, of 420 Horatio ave., died Monday morning at a Charlotte convalescent home. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Harold Smith of Charlotte. Funeral services will be held at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Pray funeral home. Burial will be at Gresham cemetery, Chester township.

Area Funerals

Forest G. DeCamp
WOODBURY, June 27—Funeral services were held Monday at Lake Odessa for Forest G. DeCamp, 63, of Woodbury, who died Friday at a Hastings hospital. Burial was in Lakeside cemetery, Lake Odessa. He is survived by the widow, Iva; two brothers, Robert of Nashville and Hugh of Imlay City; and several nieces and nephews. He was a life resident of Odessa township and operated a garage at Woodbury for 40 years.

Mrs. Alice M. Caris
JACKSON, June 27—Mrs. Alice Caris, 87, 2633 Highland ave., Jackson, died at her home Saturday evening. Surviving were a son, Roy of Jackson; five grandchildren; and three brothers, Edward and Fred Hinckle of Jackson and William of Grand Ledge. Services will be held Wednesday at 10 a. m. at the Wetherby funeral home, Jackson. Burial will be at 1 p. m. at the Vestaburg cemetery.

Clayton Coleman Dies in New Mexico

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning from the Pray funeral home in Charlotte for Clayton Coleman.

Mr. Coleman, son-in-law of Mrs. Flossie Rawson, died Saturday at New Mexico where he operated a car lot.

He is survived by his widow, Margaret, one son Frank, one daughter, Mrs. Carmen Verner, his mother Mrs. Frank Coleman and two sisters, Mrs. Crystal Wheaton and Mrs. Dorothy Halsey.

Clayton Coleman
CHARLOTTE, Nov. 28—Funeral services will be held Thursday, 10:30 a. m. for Clayton Coleman, 52, a former resident who died Saturday at his home in Alamogordo, N. M. Services will be at Pray funeral home and burial will be in Gresham cemetery.

Donald Robble Belger
CHARLOTTE, Jan. 8—Donald Robble Belger, 69, of Whitmore Lake in Livingston county and formerly of Charlotte, died Sunday night at St. Joseph hospital near Whitmore Lake after a year's illness. Mr. Belger was a retired tool and die maker and had been a male nurse in Florida at one time. He was a member of the Loomis Park Baptist church, Jackson. Surviving are the widow, Gladys; two daughters, Mrs. Winifred Bean and Mrs. Glenn Taylor, both of Jackson; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Ariene Connelly, Hollywood, Fla.; three stepsons, Robert Curtis, Coldwater; Warren Curtis, Jackson, and Richard Curtis, Melrose Park, Ill.; four grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Services will be at 2 p. m. Wednesday at the Burkhead-Cheney funeral chapel here. Burial will be in Maple Hill cemetery.

MICHI

Funeral Rites held Tues for Luther McDowell

Funeral services were conducted for Luther B. McDowell of R. 1, Portland Tuesday, Dec. 26, from the Mapes Funeral home in Sunfield. McDowell passed away in his home December 21 at the age of 85 years.

McDowell was born April 13, 1876 in Eaton county, son of Charles and Liza (Bosworth) McDowell. He was a retired farmer and lived for the past 35 years on Clarksville road; previous to that, lived in Eaton county. His wife, Gertrude, died in January of this year.

He leaves a brother-in-law, Frank Bickle, of rural Portland. The Rev. Eugene Friesen, pastor of the Sunfield Methodist Church, officiated at the two o'clock rites. Interment was made in Meadowbrook cemetery at Mulliken.

Casketbearers were Herbert Evans, Keith Merrifield, Winston Ives, Clayton Walters, Myron Guy and Harry Meyers.

Former circus man buried here Tuesday

Glenn W. McIntosh, 74, who formerly operated a monkey farm near here and a small circus for many years, was buried Jan. 2 in Riverside Cemetery.

Mr. McIntosh died last Tuesday at Fort Myers, Fla., where he had lived for the past six years. During his career, his trained monkeys, dogs, pigs, birds and ponies, played in most Michigan communities and many other communities between here and Florida.

He was born Sept. 7, 1887 in Charlotte, son of William and Sarah (Sprague) McIntosh. He ran away from home as a boy to join a circus and later formed his own. He was married here Dec. 25, 1910, to Bessie Meech and they made their home here.

Surviving are the widow, a son, Jean McIntosh of Jackson, and two grandchildren.

He was a life member of the Bellevue Masonic lodge.

He introduced relative Service copies of each of the House present the st its purpose th el be given ei contain the ti e introduced also be appr u.

order to be on (if a bill and second re eaker.

ittee and pl expend esolut mmit rders) ittee of the d vot f pas if n ded b, nter the re concl ment pri possible, ng amenc be identifi ed shall l om discha ee Art. V, to discha ie Journal. consideration d nd placed on th ed may, if the mceeding legisl; nor more than receive three sev The first and ll be in full unie a day subsequer mmittee of the V passed until it l e days. (See A ut of regular ori bering intro- than in the of the on, at riting on the shall incor- terence

propria- State y from t com-leading

Clerk one day, and con- in the nrollthe the on- one be lis- the il, n, ee Y. n- d of of ll at