

Wayne Bosworth Buried at Vermontville

Wayne A. Bosworth, age 42, of Vermontville passed away early Wednesday morning, July 18, at his home, 2117 Ionia Road, following a heart attack. He was the Standard Oil agent in Vermontville for the past 13 years.

Mr Bosworth was born January 23, 1920 at Mulliken, the son of Leon and Hazel (King) Bosworth. He served in the European theater from February 1943 to April 1946. In 1947 he was united in marriage to Kathryn Hager at Lansing, and has been a resident of Vermontville since that time.

He served on the village council from 1956 to 1958. Mr Bosworth was one of the originators of the Thornapple Valley Riding Club and was a member of the Michigan Quarter Horse Association. He was also a member of the Vermontville F. & A. M. Lodge No. 232, the DeWitt Clinton Consistory, the Lions Club, Chamber of Commerce, and the American Legion Demoray-Childs Post No. 222 which he served as commander in 1950.

Survivors include the widow, Kathryn; his mother, Mrs. Leon Bosworth of Mulliken; and four brothers, Allen of Toledo, Ohio, John of Mulliken, William of Sunfield, and Larry who is stationed in Kansas with the United States Army.

Funeral services were conducted from the Congregational Church in Vermontville Saturday afternoon, July 21. The Rev. Edwin Clark officiated at the two o'clock rites. Interment was made in Woodlawn cemetery in Vermontville.

Ex-Local Man Killed

J. J. Garrett, 29, Dies in Illinois

John J. Garrett, 29, a former Lansing resident, was killed in an accident Thursday at a cement block plant in Kankakee, Ill.

A native of Copemish, he was the son of the Rev. Dorr Garrett, now of Leslie and formerly pastor of Potter Park Methodist church.

Mr. Garrett was graduated from Eastern high school in 1951 and had lived in Illinois for several years, working at the Kankakee Block and Supply company.

Surviving are the widow, Anita; one daughter, Rebecca; one son, Mark; his parents, and two sisters, Ruth Garrett of Leslie and Doris Garrett, who is a missionary in the Philippine islands.

Services will be at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the Calvary Bible church, Bradley, Ill. Graveside services will be at 2 p. m. Monday at Evergreen cemetery, Lansing.

The body is at the Rambo funeral home, Bradley, Ill.

development of its comed by a commission of years. The commission to attract new industry plants, industrial sites, other location consider-n industry considering etter suited to specific rks closely with local ry for their own com-

Health Commissioner the Legislature, was sted in a State Health r, with the consent of ioner must be a regis-a practicing physician

ent. The commissioner necessary to carry out State Department of neral supervision over the specific duties are les and regulations to dance of local health roving plans of organiupon qualifications of ubsidies to local units;

tion of births, deaths, imate births; appoint-certificates or certified n of operation of public and supervising places nd enforcing minimum eiving federal aid; con-of trailer coach parks;

of medicines and biologic and supervising labs for communicable rsons with venereal erculosis sanatoria;
g occupational dis-ecting diseases and also chairman of the Council; and a mem-ission, State Plumb-

Funerals

Reinhold Penner

Funeral services for Reinhold Penner, Motor Wheel supervisor who died Monday after being stricken at work, will be held at 2:30 p. m. Saturday at the Gorsline-Runciman funeral home. Burial will be in Glendale cemetery, Okemos.

CREYTS, MRS. RUTH E.

3007 Benton Blvd.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ruth E. Creyts will be held 2:30 p. m. Monday at the Estes-Leadley Colonial chapel. Rev. M. Schuurmans will officiate and interment will be at Delta Mills cemetery. Bearers will be Marion Converse, Leon Felton, Herbert Hardike, Leslie Waite, William Montgomery and Earl W. Stoll.

Handwritten signature

PURE MAPLE SYRUP

Made by
TINKER BROTHERS
Vermontville, Michigan