(Special to The State Journal)

VERMONTVILLE, Oct. 30 — A prominent business and community leader here died Monday afternoon while working in his garage.

Arthur L. Barningham, 78, of 243 E. Main st., a native of Youngstown, O., operated his own insurance business here for many years.

For 23 years he worked as a cashier for the Citizens bank, while operating his insurance business. He also served as village and township clerk for about 15 years, was president, secretary and director of the Woodlawn Cemetery association for 40 years, and served a number of years on the board of education both as treasurer and director.

Barningham also was instrumental in organizing the local Lions club and served as president and treasurer of that club. He was a deacon of the Congregational church.

He is survived by the widow, Alice; two sons, Walter L. of Pontiac, and Donald of Eaton Rapids; one daughter, Mrs. Ernest Culp of Charlotte; seven grandchildren; two brothers, William of Vermontville and Thomas of Marshall, and two sisters, Mrs. St. Claire Parsons of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Rolin Sprague of Kalamazoo.

Services will be at 2 p. m. Wednesday from the Congregational church here. The body will be at the Vogt funeral home prior to the services. Burial will be in Woodlawn cemetery.
