Funeral Services Held For Former Vermontville Resident

Laurance D. Benedict was born in Vermontville, July 18th, 1867. He was one of three sons of William Benedict. There was also a sister, Mae. All preceded him in death.

Laurance was united in marriage to Helena Slout in 1890. Two sons were born to this union. Neil, of Evanston, Ill., and Ross of Seattle, Washington. He was the proud grandfather of five grandchildren and 21 great grand children.

Laurance was a pioneer in the lumber business, having spent his entire working years in this field. The last thirty he spent with the Evans-Retting Lumber Co. of Grand Rapids, going with them in 1920 and retiring in 1950 at the age of 83.

He was very interested in Masonry and the Congregational Church, devoting a great deal of his time to both. He spent his last twelve years at the Clark Memorial Home in Grand Rapids, passing away there on December 25th, 1962 at the age of 95.

Services were conducted at the Metcalf Chapel with Dr. Bruce H. Masselink of the Mayflower Congregational Church officiating. The pallbearers and honorary pallbearers were past Commanders of the Grand Rapids Knight Templars. He was laid to rest at the Rest Lawn Mausoleum in Grand Rapids.
