

Form for future employment.

Mrs. Myron (Dorcas) Hawkins, who passed away last week in Kalamazoo, was a former Charlotte resident. They lived on Oliver St. near the high school, and Mr. Hawkins was a well-known insurance man. After his death, she moved to Kalamazoo, so that her daughter Doris could attend school there, and later she married Mr. Miller and is now teaching in Indiana. Mrs. Hawkins worked in a hat shop in Kalamazoo until December, when she became too ill and was taken to the hospital where they found a cancerous condition. She was a sister of Mrs. Ernest Horn in Kalamo.
