GAN, THURSDAY, MARCH 21, 1963 She was associated with her Auto Crash Kills husband, Clare, in the profession of funeral directing; was a member of the Central Methodist Church Mrs. Clare Pickens. and Lake Odessa O.E.S. chapter. She served as school nurse in the Lake Odessa school and was very Injures 4 Others active in all civic and community projects. Mrs. Pickens was a great grand-Mrs. Vinton V. Pickens, 50, of daughter of Cynthia Moody of hake Odessa was killed early Thursthe Moody Foundation of the day evening in a one car accident church. on M-50 west of Lake Odessa, about Mr. and Mrs. Pickens moved to a half mile west of the Freeport Lake Odessa from Grand Rapids road in Kent county. when they purchased and assumed Mrs. Pickens, the driver of the the operation of the Pickens Funcar, was headed west en route to eral chapel on Jan. 1, 1946. Grand Rapias to attend the 75 92 92 92 95 95 95 95 Surviving are her husband, Clare; Woodland-Fowler basketball game two sons, Tom, a student at Central at the Godwin gym. Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant and Tim, at home, a Junior at The car went out of control after 132 4435 275 275 531 84 166 280 Lakewood High school; two daughswerving to the right traveling 102 ters, Joy, and Jill, a fifth grade student; also an uncle of Ada: feet before returning to the highway. It then continued across the Funeral services were held Sunroad ending up in a field, rolling day at 2:30 at the Pickens chapel 2220 727 727 735 735 735 735 735 735 735 735 over before coming to a stop, acwith interment in Lakeside cemecording to State Troopers. tery. Rev. Luther Brokaw of the Central Methodist Church offici-Dr. Henry Kreulen of Grand Rapids, Kent county medical examiner, said Mrs. Pickens instant death was caused by a skull fracture and broken neck. Area Deaths Her passengers included her ladaughter, Joy, 15, a Sophomore at of Lakewood High, who suffered a ill skull injury and abrasions of her m. Vicky Stambaugh NASHVILLE-Vicky Sue Stambaugh, 9, died at 1:23 a.m. legs; Mrs. Russell Hewitt, 45, who suffered rib fractures and bruises Wednesday at Blodgett Hospital of her head; Mrs. Edward (Suzie) Cooley, 38, who suffered a fracture in Grand Rapids where she had of her back and facial cuts, and undergone heart surgery Tuesday. Mrs. Larry Eggers, 24, wife of the It was her second operation. She Lakewood basketball coach, who underwent surgery for a heart consuffered bruises and a sprain of her left shoulder. Mrs. Eggers was treated and released but the others dition in 1956 when she was three years old. She is survived by her remain at Pennock hospital. parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Stam-Mrs. Pickens was born at Baldbaugh of Nashville; two brothers, Gary and Ronnie; the grandparwin, Dec. 14, 1912, and when a ents. Mrs. Ola Wooston of Hastsmall girl moved to Grand Rapids ings and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stamwith her parents, Edward and baugh of Vermontville. Gladys (Vinton) Vis where her father was a doctor at Burton Mrs. Hattie E. Allen Heights. SUNFIELD - Mrs. Hattie E. Al-She was an only child and her parents died within three months len, 92, lifelong Sunfield area res e ident, died early Wednesday at of each other while she was a the home of a daughter, Mrs. Senior. She graduated from South Maida Dawson of near Sunfield. High school in Grand Rapids in Also surviving is a son, Ora of 1931 and was also a graduate of Charlevoix. Services will be Satthe St. Mary's Hospital School of urday at 2 p.m. at Woodbury United Brethren Church. The body Nursing She was very active in civic affairs and worked with the Red Cross Blood bank, National Polio will be at Mapes-Fisher Funeral Home until Saturday morning. Foundation, Blodgett Orthopedic clinic and as a registered nurse was Burial will be in Sunfield Cemetery. employed by St, Mary's hospital in Grand Rapids and Pennock hospital in Hastings.