Mrs Westfall died enroute to the hospital and Mr Westfall remains in the St. Lawrence hospital in just "fair" condition.

Venton was pinned inside the wreckage for nearly 45 minutes, and after being freed, was taken to the Ionia Memorial hospital for emergency treatment and then transferred to a Grand Rapids hospital.

Funeral rites for Mrs Westfall were held Monday, June 24, from the Eagle Methodist Church. The Rev Vernon Randall officiated at the two o'clock service. Mrs Robert Atherton and Mrs George Rose sang a duet and organist was Mrs Robert Selden.

Mrs Westfall was born Sept.

13, 1894 in Big Rapids. She lived in Sunfield for about thirteen years. Mrs Westfall was state recording secretary for the WCTU. She had the courage to live by her convictions and her life was a living testimony of her belief. She was a member of the Eagle Methodist Church and was active in church affairs.

Besides her husband, Harper, she is suffived by four daughters, Mrs Ruth Maguire of Port Huron, Mrs Carol Waldron of Bay Port, Minn., Mrs Fern Lewis of Mason, and Mrs Eleanor Baker of Holt; two sons, Charles of Eagle and Thomas of Grand Ledge; 16 grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs Carrie Hamm of Moline, Ill

Pallbearers were Ira Howe, Edward Rose, Morris Johnson, Robert Atherton, Fred Van Amburg and Forrest Selden. Interment was in North Eagle cemetery. Arrangements were in charge of Barker Funeral Home of Mulliken

14th.
15th
16th
17th
17th
18th
18th
18t p
2nd p
3nd p
4th p
7th pr

Ward Smith

NASHVILLE — Ward Smith, 78, died Saturday night at a Hastings hospital where he had been a patient for a day. He had been a Nashville resident for more than 50 years. He had operated a cream and egg station until about 1921. He then became a store clerk and school bus driver. Surviving are two sons, Lyn of Fullerton, Calif., and Carl of Lansing and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The body is at the Vogt Funeral Home, Nashville, where arrangements are pending.

Active Newsman Succumbs at 92

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Charles I. Blood, who joined the staff of the Kansas City Star in 1886 and was still working for the newspaper last, Monday, died Tuesday night at the age of 92.

His last bution appeared in this morning beditions. It was a summary of news from the files of June 6, 1935, appearing in the column "Forty Years Ago," which he had edited since 1939. Blood prepared the column Monday morning.

Blood was city editor of the Star's morning edition from 1905 until 1939.

by

1.64