-Rev. G. Edgar, was 29, 1915, at Tarentum, Pennsylvania, and died February 2, 1959, at Central City, Nebraska. He was a graduate of Greenville College and Asbury Seminary. As a pastor he served in California, Illinois and Michigan. For two years he was a chaplain in World War II. In the work of Christian education, he was a teacher at Spring Arbor Junior College, president for two years at Central College, and at the time of his death president of Calvary Life College. He was a gifted preacher and teacher. As a Christian he walked closely with God, and influenced many to lead a deeply spiritual life. While at Spring Arbor he gave leadership to the project which resulted in the founding of the Seminary in Brazil. He is survived by his wife, Kathleen Gaddis, his mother, Mrs. J. H. Whiteman, three children, Donalee, Darrell and Lowell, and his brothers, Eldon and Lester. Service at Central City, conducted by George L. Smith, followed by service and interment at Spring Arbor, Michigan, with sermon by
