

Deaths

(For additional information on deaths and funerals turn to Announcements, Classification No. 1, in the classified section.)

Mrs. Kate C. Triphagen, 81, of 1200 N. Logan st., died Thursday afternoon at a Kalamazoo hospital. Mrs. Triphagen had been a resident of Lansing for the past 36 years, coming here from Sunfield. Surviving is a son, John C. Triphagen, of Lansing. Funeral services for Mrs. Triphagen will be held at Estes-Leadley Drawing Room chapel at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, Rev. John Harle, Jr., officiating. Burial will be in the Meadowbrook cemetery at Mulliken.

SERVICES HELD THURSDAY FOR EARL M. HADDEN

Funeral services were held Thursday from the Vogt Funeral home for Earl M. Hadden, 70. Mr Hadden passed away Monday evening at the Charlotte hospital, where he had been a patient for one day. He had been in ill health for several months.

Mr Hadden was born July 24, 1888 at Oswego, New York, the son of George and Eva Jerrett Hadden, and moved to Vermontville when he was just a small boy. August 22, 1914 he was married to Irene Hager of Sunfield.

Surviving besides the wife, Irene, are two sons, Robert Hadden of Flint, James Hadden of Dimondale; four daughters, Mrs Eloise Seitz of Vermontville, Mrs Russell (Janice) Jopie of Charlotte, Mrs John (Norma) Atanasoff, and Mrs Nelson (Mary) Ohlemacher, both of Lansing; 15 grandchildren; one sister, Mrs Georgeana Griffin of Battle Creek, one half sister, Mrs Gilford Leaser of Bellevue and one half brother, Kenneth Pember of Vermontville.

Rev H B Loomis of the Charlotte Congregational church officiated and burial was in Wood lawn cemetery.

Community Saddened by Death of Ethel Mapes

The community of Sunfield was saddened Friday afternoon, Feb. 13, when Mrs. Ethel M. Mapes, 74, passed away in her home on Jackson street, following an illness of several months. Mrs. Mapes and her husband, Harry, had observed their 55th wedding anniversary on Feb. 11.

She was born in Barry county Sept. 1, 1884, the daughter of Henry and Dora Bera. At the age of one year she and her parents moved to Sunfield.

In 1912 she and her husband, Harry, formed a partnership with her father in the furniture and funeral director's business which they operated until their son, Jack, bought out his interest in the furniture store. Mr. Mapes is still active at the funeral home. Mrs. Mapes maintained an insurance agency which was previously owned by her father.

Mrs. Mapes was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star, Sunfield chapter.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Mildred Maher of Franklin, Mrs. Dorothy Dowd of Berkley and Mrs. Gretchen O'Toole of Grand Ledge; two sons, Jack and Larry, both of Sunfield; a brother, Ozro Bera of Grand Rapids; seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The Reverend Don Carriek officiated at the two o'clock funeral rites conducted from the Mapes Funeral home Monday, Feb. 16. Interment was made in Sunfield cemetery.

Casketbearers were Clair McWhorter, Hans Huyek, George Davis, Carlton Estep, Gordon Schray and Leonard Lewis, all employees of Mapes Furniture company.