

Jessie Bishop

SUNFIELD—Services will be Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Mapes-Fisher Funeral Home here for Mrs. Jessie Bishop, 73, of Sunfield, who died Tuesday in a Lansing hospital.

Burial will be in Sunfield Cemetery.

Surviving are her husband, Harold; a daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Lake, Sunfield; two sisters, Mrs. Raymond Hetrick of Kalamazoo and Mrs. Darwin Clay, Ionia; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Dr. Claude A. Bosworth

CHARLOTTE — Funeral services for Dr. Claude A. Bosworth, 63, a former Charlotte resident, will be at 2 p.m. Friday at the Lawrence Avenue United Methodist Church.

Burial will be in the Maple Hill Cemetery.

Dr. Bosworth died of a heart attack Sunday at his home in Marquette. He was vice president for public services at Northern Michigan University.

He was a native of Charlotte and held several teaching posts at Michigan State University from 1948 to 1954 when he moved to Marquette.

Surviving are his wife, Ruth; his mother, Mrs. Mae Bosworth of Charlotte; three daughters, Mrs. Gerald Church of Minnesota, Mrs. John Duxton of Royal Oak and Mrs. John Lucas of Illinois; two sons, Jerry of Flint and Stephen of England; a brother, Cecil of Charlotte; two sisters, Mrs. George Dean and Mrs. Ivan Thompson of Charlotte; and 17 grandchildren.

The body will be at the Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte, Thursday evening.

Marian Chamberlain

Services for Mrs. Marian Irene (Sprague) Chamberlain, 100, a native of Vermontville Township, were held Thursday at 10:30 a. m. from the Pray Funeral Home in Charlotte. Burial was made in Maple Hill Cemetery, Charlotte.

Mrs. Chamberlain died Monday, January 4, in Faith Nursing Home near Eaton Rapids where she had been a patient three days.

Marian Sprague was born February 7, 1869, in Vermontville Township, a daughter of Henry and Zilpha (Green) Sprague. She moved to Charlotte with her parents as a child and attended the Charlotte schools. She was married to William Chamberlain, also of Charlotte. He died several years ago, and for many years Mrs. Chamberlain resided in Detroit with her daughter, Miss Vera Chamberlain. Other survivors include three sons, Carlton of Lansing and William and Donald, both of Detroit; several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.