

Vermontville Leader Dies

A. R. Lovell
A. R. Lovell, 74, Passes in Arkansas

Vermontville—Arby R. Lovell, 74, former Vermontville village president and businessman, died Wednesday at a Corning, Ark., hospital.

A native of Ohio, Mr. Lovell came to Michigan at 18 months with his family in a covered wagon.

He was owner and operator of a local implement firm from the early 1930s until 1952, when he retired and sold the business to a son. He served as village president several terms beginning in 1942.

Surviving are his wife, Minnie, with whom he celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in September, 1952; two sons, Gordon of Vermontville and Ellis of Dearborn; a daughter, Mrs. Harry Wright of Potterville; four sisters, Mrs. Fred Clay of Charlotte, Mrs. Ray Welch and Mrs. Pearl Van Buren of Sunfield and Mrs. Charles Collier of Vermontville and six grandchildren.

The body is being returned to the Otto funeral home here.
