Lydia Shields, 96,
Of Nashville, Dies

Nashville—Funeral services for Mrs. Lydia Shields, 96, of Nashville, who died Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lulu Southern of Kalamo, will be held at 2 Tuesday at the Otto funeral home here. Burial in Nashville cemetery.

Mrs. Shields was born in Sunfield township, Eaton county, May 6, 1858, in a log house built by her father, three and one-half miles northeast of Vermontville. Her entire life was spent in Eaton and Barry counties.

Her parents, Andrew J. and Amanda Loomis were natives of New York. She was the eldest of seven children. One brother, Howard Loomis, resides near Barryton.

She married William Edgar Shields, Nov. 1, 1877. Besides Mrs. Southern, she is survived by two sons, Leon and John of Kalamo; 17 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren and 11 great-great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Shields has been active in many community organizations and was a member of the Eastern Star for many years.

H. E. Powell
Ionia, Passes

Funeral to Be Friday
for Ex-Legislator

Ionia—(P)—Herbert E. Powell, 88, prominent one-time Republican state legislator, died Tuesday at his home here.

Powell was state representative from Ionia county from 1901-1904. He was a member of the state constitutional convention which framed the state 1909 Michigan constitution.

Powell represented Ionia and Montcalm counties as state senator from 1913-1916. From 1927 to 1932 he served as state commissioner of agriculture under Govs. Fred W. Green and Wilber M. Brucker.

A lifelong resident of Ionia county, Powell was a farmer and stock-raiser until his retirement.

He is survived by his two sons, Ralph of Columbus, Ohio, and Stanley of Ionia, and a daughter, Mrs. Earle Harrison of Lansing.

Stanley Powell is the Michigan Farm Bureau legislative representative and member of the state fair board.

Funeral services will be at 2:30 Friday at the Ionia Baptist church.
