

Former Resident Taken By Death

Roy W. Litchfield of Ionia, formerly of this vicinity, passed away Sunday night, May 26, in an Ionia convalescent home after an illness of two weeks. He was 72 years of age.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the Mapes Funeral home in Sunfield. The Rev. Don H. Carrick, of Sunfield, was officiating minister. Interment was made in Sunfield cemetery.

Mr. Litchfield was born December 30, 1884 in Sunfield township, the son of William and Viola Litchfield. He married Retta Shaffer, who survives. The deceased lived in the Sunfield and Mulliken areas for many years. Mr. Litchfield was a retired farmer and lived the last five years in Ionia.

Surviving besides his widow, Retta, are: four sons, Leo of Palo, Elvin of Eaton Rapids, Cleo of Mason, and Durwood of Lansing; three daughters, Mrs. Maxine Stahl of Clarksville, Mrs. Erma Week and Mrs. Atheline Fisher, both of Saranac; 22 grandchildren and two great grandchildren; one brother, Niles, of Mulliken; one sister, Mrs. Anna Smith of Florida; also several nieces and nephews.

Bearers were Lyle Hendede, Charles Shaffer, Myron Guy, Clifford Cheal, Merle Sutherland, Jr., and Archie Guy.

Mrs. Jennie Hosey Taken by Death

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon for Mrs. Jennie Hosey from the Mapes Funeral home in Sunfield at two o'clock. Mrs. Hosey passed away unexpectedly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jessie Cox of Shaytown road, May 18. She was 91 years of age.

Mrs. Hosey was born August 31, 1865 in Lyons, Mich., the daughter of Archie and Margaret Badder. She spent most of her life in the Sunfield and Mulliken area. Mrs. Hosey was a member of the Robakah lodge.

She leaves three sons, Archie of Central Lake, Phillip of Mulliken, and Melvin of Vermontville; two daughters, Mrs. Marguerite Satterlee of Charlotte and Mrs. Jessie Cox of Mulliken; 17 grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren; one brother, Myron Badder of Ionia; one sister, Mrs. Alice Chick of Williamston; also several nieces and nephews.

The Rev. John Sorensen, of Battle Creek, was officiating minister. Interment was made in Meadowbrook cemetery at Mulliken.

Casketbearers were Donald Badder, Ray Badder, Freeman Monks, Albert Hermans, Roy Monks, and Charles Crowell.

59 had already been suspended, and desired relative to the bill and the point of order as to the procedure when the special committee made its report, the speaker very properly ruled that it was within the power of the house to take such action on the report as a majority of the members decided, even to the consideration of one amendment at a time.

297. A certain bill was not passed, and a motion was made to reconsider the vote by which the bill failed to pass, and that motion did not prevail. At a later session a motion was made to suspend the rules for the purpose of reconsidering the vote by which the house did not pass the bill. A point of order was raised that the motion to (again) reconsider was out of order.—H. J. 1933, Ex. Sess., p. 169.
