

planning to
to care for Mrs.
E. D. Osborn and her new baby girl.

Forest J. Hager Dies Monday

Forrest J. Hager 80, retired farmer died Monday in a Battle Creek hospital where he had been a patient for two weeks.

Mr. Hager was born February 24, 1877 in Woodland township the son of Orson and Carolina (Triskaus) Hager, and had lived in the Woodland area most of his life.

Surviving are the wife, the former Rachael Newell Scofield; a step-daughter, Miss Ruth Scofield and a step-son, Frank, both of Woodland.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2:00 from the Pickens funeral Chapel in Lake Odessa and burial was in the Woodland Memorial cemetery.

quette, two sisters, Mrs. Ivan (Julia) Thompson of Coldwater, and Mrs. George (Beatrice) Dean of Charlotte.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m. Wednesday from the Pray Funeral home, Rev. Philip Glotfelty of the Lawrence Avenue

November 15
Methodist church officiated. Burial was at Maple Hill cemetery.

Gertrude Hawkins Succumbs at 95

Vermontville — Mrs. Gertrude Hawkins, 95, a Vermontville resident for 60 years, died Thursday in Burton Heights Osteopathic hospital at Grand Rapids.

The daughter and widow of Civil war veterans, Mrs. Hawkins was an active member of Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War. The organization's Vermontville tent was named in her honor.

Surviving are a granddaughter, Mrs. Walter McNitt of Grand Rapids, with whom Mrs. Hawkins had been living since last fall, a great-granddaughter and two great-great-grandchildren.

Services will be held at 2 Monday at the Otto funeral home, Vermontville, with burial in Woodlawn cemetery here.

Mrs. Hosey's Rites Held at Sunfield

Sunfield—Services for Mrs. Jennie Hosey, 91, who died Saturday at her Mulliken home, were held Monday at Mapes funeral home, Sunfield, with burial in Meadowbrook cemetery at Mulliken.

Surviving are three sons, Archie of Central Lake, Phillip of Mulliken and Melvin of Vermontville; two daughters, Mrs. Marguerite Satterlee of Charlotte and Mrs. Jessie Cox of Mulliken; a brother, Myron Badder of Ionia; a sister, Mrs. Alice Chick of Williamston, 17 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

PLOEG—Arthur L. Ploeg, aged 51, of Cedar Springs, passed away Tuesday morning at his home. Surviving are his wife, LaDore; one daughter, Mrs. Robert (Joyce) Collins of Grand Rapids; two sons, Robert of Grand Rapids and Tom at home; five sisters, Mrs. John (Anna) Van Laan of Caledonia, the Misses Elizabeth, Deanetta, Louise and Mrs. Ed (Henrietta) Veenstra, all of Grand Rapids; three brothers, John, Morton and Kenneth, all of Rockford, and five grandchildren. Mr. Ploeg reposes at the Walsh-Bliss Funeral Home, Cedar Springs, where services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. Interment Chapel Hills Memorial Gardens. The family will meet relatives and friends Wednesday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m. Those desiring may send memorial contributions to the Jack and Jill Camp at Cedar Springs.

Clair Bosworth Dies Of Heart Attack Sunday at Duck Lake

Clair G. Bosworth, 49, of 237 S. Clinton St., partner-manager of AWCO Products Co. here, died of a heart attack at 6 p. m. Sunday at his cottage at Duck Lake. Mr. Bosworth was born November 17, 1907, in Charlotte, a son of Guy and Ethel (McWhorter) Bosworth. He was a member of Charlotte Lodge No. 120 F. & A. M. He is survived by his wife, Maxine (Maxwell) Bosworth; two daughters, Christine and Sandra, at home; his mother of Charlotte; two brothers, Cecil Bosworth of Charlotte and Claud Bosworth of Mar-

General Taxation—Reps. Her
Anderson, Ray, McKen
son, Acke
Reps. Step
—Reps.
Krause, F
Charles P.
Reps. S
son A.
Donald,
ch.
Reps. Loupee, Morgan, Hooper, Acker, Leszynski
Goulette, Town, Fisher, Nowak, Green, Gillespie, Campbell