

Services Saturday for Mrs. Lucy Turner

After an illness of one year, Mrs. Lucy Turner of route 1, Mulliken, passed away in a Charlotte convalescent home where she had been staying for the past two weeks. She was 80 years of age.

Funeral services will be conducted in the Mapes Funeral home in Sunfield this Saturday, Sept. 21 at 2 p.m. The Rev. Floyd Nagel, of the Oneida Gospel church, will officiate. Burial will be in Meadowbrook cemetery at Mulliken.

Mrs. Turner was born August 17, 1877 in Seweba township in Ionia county, the daughter of George and Zorene Collier. She was a life-long resident of the Sunfield area and a member of the Sunfield United Brethren church. Her husband, Ora, died in 1939.

She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Lola Edgel of route 1, Mulliken; one son, Ray, of Kalama-zoo; four grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

SERVICES HELD MONDAY FOR HENRIETTA DAVIS

Funeral services were held Monday from the Methodist church for Mrs. Henrietta Davis, 74.

Mrs. Davis died at the Charlotte hospital early Friday morning. She was born in Barry County, Woodland township, September 5, 1883, the daughter of Monroe and Lucetta Rowlander. March 28 1898 she was married to Standerson Davis. He preceded her in death in 1944. They lived in Woodland township for seven years, coming to Vermontville in 1905.

Surviving are two sons, Joseph and Benson of Vermontville; one granddaughter, and one great granddaughter; three brothers, Borden Rowlander of Nashville, Burt of Woodland and George of Grand Ledge; two sisters, Mrs. Henry Martin of Dimondale, and Mrs. Wesley Desgranges of Ohio.

Rev. Howard Lindsay officiated and burial was in the Freemire cemetery.
