

Local Auto Dealer Suffers Fatal Heart Attack Monday Night

Charles H. VanSickle, 62, died of a heart attack Monday night, at his residence on Clinton Trail in Eaton Township. The Automobile dealer, a partner in the VanSickle-Rowland Ford Agency in Charlotte, has been suffering from a heart condition for the past 4 years.

Mr. VanSickle was born on May 24, 1895, in Salem, Michigan, the son of John and Dora (Andrews) VanSickle and moved with his parents to Ionia.

He was a veteran of World War I and upon his discharge from service married Lela McCauley on September 17, 1919, in Detroit where he was active in real estate and worked for Universal Credit Corp.

On November 23, 1943, he moved to Charlotte with his family when he took over the Ford agency here. He was a member of Charlotte Lodge No. 120, & A. M. and the American Legion.

He is survived by his wife. Funeral services will be held at the Burkhead Chapel with Rev. H. B. Loomis officiating. The body will be moved to Wayne County for burial in Thayer Cemetery at Salem.

WASS
NIVE
Democrat
90
79
72
93
15
64
96
30
200
126
329
316
324
345
17
37
24
58
54
4
0
0
3
6
8
0
7
0
2
2
47
1,955
1,788
848

Industrialist In Eaton Dies

Charlotte—Clair G. Bosworth, 49, partner-manager of AWCO Aluminum Products Manufacturing Co. here, died Sunday of a heart attack at his cottage at Duck lake about 15 miles southeast of Charlotte.

Mr. Bosworth was a member of Charlotte lodge No. 120, F&AM. He was a native of this area.

Surviving are his wife, Maxine; two daughters, Christine and Sandra, both at home; mother, Mrs. Ethel Bosworth of Charlotte; two brothers, Cecil of Charlotte, and Claud of Marquette, and two sisters, Mrs. Ivan Thompson of Coldwater and Mrs. George Dean of Charlotte.

The body is at the Pray funeral home.

Death Takes Kalamo Township Farmer

Frank Vernon, 72, a farmer, died of a heart ailment, Sunday April 7, 1957, at his residence in Kalamo township. He was born in Vermontville township and had been a resident of Kalamo township for the past 31 years. Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Ralph Wells, Kalamo township; three grandchildren, and one great-grandchild. Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday from the Pray funeral home. Burial was in Kalamo cemetery.

19 104
cemetery.
50 SUNFIELD—Rol W. Litchfield, 72, of Ionia, a native of Sunfield township, died Sunday in an Ionia rest home. Services will be held at 2 Wednesday in the Mapes funeral home here with burial in Sunfield cemetery.

MULLIKEN—Services for Mrs. Linda Loucks, 84, who died here Tuesday, will be held at 2 Thursday at the Barker funeral home. Burial in Mulliken cemetery.

MORLOK, CARL A.
1023 E. Saginaw st.

Funeral services for Mr. Morlok will be held from the Gorsline-Runciman funeral home Monday at 1 p. m. Rev. F. P. Zimmerman of the Zion Lutheran church officiating. Interment will be in Chapel Hill. Pallbearers will be David Duncan, William Keyes, Mayor Ralph Crego, Judge Sam Street Hughes, Chief Paul Taylor and Fred Kircher.

Area Deaths

Ernest E. Barnes
LAKE ODESSA, April 29—Ernest E. Barnes, 73, of Lake Odessa, died Sunday at Pennox hospital, Hastings. Mr. Barnes moved to Lake Odessa from Lansing when he retired 10 years ago. Before his retirement he was a foreman at Motor Wheel corporation, Lansing. Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Bernice Hyatt of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and a brother, Pearl T., of Detroit. The funeral will be Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. at the Pickens funeral chapel, Lake Odessa. Burial will be in Lakeside cemetery.

180