Hemry.—Florence Achilles, born at Athena, Oregon, December 11, 1910, died at Oroville, Washington, January 18, 1958. Clearly converted at eight years under Rev. B. C. Dewey, she was a faithful member of the Free Methodist Church. Graduating from Seattle Pacific College in 1931, she married Harold B. Hemry in 1933. Facing death early in life, she remarked, "If this should be the means of just one person drawing nearer to God, it will be worth it all." Surviving are her husband, Harold, two children, Larry and Patricia, her parents, and one sister. The writer was assisted by several other ministers. Interment at Seattle.
