

The Powderpuff game this year was a long, hard-fought battle. The seniors took an early lead, with touchdowns by Erica Burkett and Emma McGlocklin. By the second half, however, the juniors had caught up with two touchdowns scored by Emily Morris. The last thirty seconds of the game were fought hard, but the juniors managed to pull ahead with one more touchdown from Taylor Medina. The final score was 14-16, the seniors just one touchdown away from victory.
