

meeting's proceedings.

It was incredible! It was fantastic! But there for all to behold was the constitution, the by-laws, the object of the association, the membership and the officers listed in full.

High Officiating Grand Vizier Potentate: Harry Larson

Secondary Supreme Vice-Potentate: John Parmenter

Noble Scribe and Exalted Keeper of the Records: George Brunson

Mighty Chancellor of the Exchequer: Ben Allen

Exalted Marshall and Keeper of the Door Keys: William David

The look of chagrin on the faces of those boys was so overwhelming that in a few moments the entire High School was in an uproar of merriment. I think I may say that even the teachers joined in (discreetly of course.)

The new club burst like a punctured balloon. I doubt if it ever met again.

And I don't recall that the F.M.S.M.B. met many times after that either. It had served its purpose.

"O, didn't I tell you what those letters meant?"

Females Mysterious Society for the Mystification of the Boys.

In pace requiescat.