

strains of Rubinstein's melody came softly from the piano.

"The bride was attended by Miss Murphy of Toledo, as maid of honor with Miss Rigley of Owosso, and Miss Hayward of Yonkers, N.Y., as bride's maids and Miss Kedzie of Lansing, and Miss March of Olivet, as ribbon bearers. The groom was attended by Mr. Larned of Lansing. The group presented a pleasing picture--the bride in a handsome gown of white silk mull over white satin, carrying white roses and her attendants in dainty gowns of white and pale green and carrying pink roses.

"Following the congratulations dainty refreshments were served and pleasant greetings exchanged between the assembled guests.

"Amidst a shower of rice and good wishes, Dr. and Mrs. Swinton took the evening train for Detroit enroute for the future home in Ontonagon, where they will be at home after October 1st.

"The many beautiful presents received by the happy couple testify of the love and esteem felt for them by their many friends. Congratulations were received by telegram just before and after the ceremony from distant friends.

"The guests from abroad were Mr. and Mrs. Murphy and daughter of Toledo, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Hayward and daughter of Yonkers, N.Y., Miss Lois Rigley of Owosso, Miss Pearl Kedzie and Mr. Larned of Lansing, Mrs. Caulkins and Mrs. Buchanan of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Edna Arnold, Miss Ketchum and Miss Grier of Charlotte, Mrs. Marsh and daughters, Pres. Sperry and daughter, Prof. Ellis, the Misses York, Miss Mulford and Mr. Evans of Olivet."
